

KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF SECURITIES TO USE MOVIES IN THE WORK

Using modern and improved paraphernalia, the ritualistic work of the Knights and Ladies of Security will be exemplified by William A. Bibb, national treasurer, at what is expected to be an unusually interesting meeting of the order on Thursday evening, April 2, at the K. of P. hall on Washington street.

A class of more than 100 is to be admitted into the order. The new ritualistic exercise is an advanced measure in fraternal work on the part of the Knights and Ladies of Security. They being the first society in the United States to apply themselves to the "motion picture" in the portrayal of the lessons of fraternity outlined by their ritual. The picture film of 1,200 feet was produced by one of the leading Chicago motion picture companies, under the personal supervision of a well-known movie director.

In the coming of Mr. Bibb to Phoenix, at the request of the local organization, personally conducting the entire evening's entertainment, a typical illustration is offered of the efficiency which science has provided in the present generation over the old order of things in the past, when it would have been necessary for him to have been accompanied by a company of 20 well-trained degree staff officers and drill team, supplemented by a baggage car of scenic paraphernalia to put on the same "show" which a single individual is today able to produce with a little magic machine no larger than a suitcase and which the operator carries about as he would an ordinary handbag.

The local committee in charge of the demonstration on April 2 consists of: J. F. Flowers, master of ceremonies; Agnes McCabe, chairman; Mrs. C. E. Winters, Mrs. Hilda Morris, Mrs. J. V. Holsman, Mrs. Burch, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Carpenter.

ARIZONA EARTH RICH IN BURIED WHISKEY

There is more buried treasure in Arizona today than during the pioneer period, according to Justice Charles De Sules Wheeler who is of the opinion that the master bootleggers make this disposition of their stock.

Justice Wheeler, before whom scores held in liquor cases, stated yesterday that the very condition of the bottles when brought into court as exhibits show that they have been buried.

He believed that they are placed in the ground for safekeeping, that it would be considered dangerous by the average bootlegger to have the liquor in his possession in the town where he operates.

"It is my theory that the liquor is buried and that small quantities are brought to town from time to time and sold. We have often noted the dirt and sand on the bottles introduced in court," said the presiding justice of the east precinct.

Wednesday evening April 2, at Arcadia hall, a social dance of the United Spanish War Veterans camp and the women's auxiliary will be held. This year the dance is being given later than usual, due to the "flu" and other drawbacks, but the worthiness of the cause, and the calls made on the organization from time to time, make this one of the important means of raising money for the benefit fund of both organizations.

Many questions have been asked of the committee regarding whether the dance would be a dress affair, and whether formal invitations would be necessary or not. To these questions the committee desires to reply that all are cordially invited to attend the dance and that it will be strictly an informal good time, without even the usual restraint of programs, Bessie's orchestra have promised to use extra care in selecting military music full of "kick" and no pretense of any kind will be made, except to guarantee real dancing on the finest floor in the state, to good music for a worthy cause.

The tickets will be 50 cents per person, and can be purchased from any member of either organization or at the door on the night of the dance, and the committee looks for a large crowd as Phoenix has always stood fearfully by its war-veteran organization.

"DRY LANDER" TO VOTE AT ELECTION TUESDAY

It was stated yesterday from the offices of Judge R. E. Sloan, attorney for the so-called "Dry landers," that all of those entitled to vote at the last general election of the Water Users' association and at the special election when money was voted for the purpose of installing pumping plants, by reason of the Mandamus actions brought against the association, would be entitled and permitted to vote at the coming Water Users' election Tuesday.

This was stipulated between the "Dry landers" and the Water Users' association. Those "Dry landers" not included in the former suits will not be allowed to vote at the coming election. It was also made known by the attorneys that where the owners of land had been given the right to vote, that subsequent purchases of that land would also be entitled to vote at this election.

CHARITY BALL DATE CHANGED TO APRIL 23

The annual charity ball of the board of visitors of St. Luke's home will be given at the Woman's club on the evening of April 23.

This announcement was made last evening by Mrs. W. G. Hartman, chairman of the board, who stated that the original date, Easter Monday, had to be changed in view of the fact that the Fifth Liberty loan campaign would be launched on that evening.

Many of the returned soldiers who were eagerly looking forward to the dance called the committee's attention to the date which was immediately changed. The invitations for the dance will be issued in a few days, and the affair will as usual be the most notable social event of the year.

Judge Stanford yesterday decided that a man cannot be enjoined from changing his mind, and that the city cannot be enjoined from enforcing its ordinances, or words to that effect.

W. T. Prince had an auto stand in front of the Munson optical store, with the consent of Dr. Munson. But the doctor changed his mind and withdrew his consent, and the city authorities chased Prince's machine away, as per the ordinance.

Whereupon Prince, through his attorney, Hugh and Brumback, applied to Judge Stanford's court for an order restraining Munson from withdrawing his consent, and restraining the city from removing him from the stand.

Attorney R. M. Marks, for Munson, and Deputy City Attorney Nelson, entered a demurrer to the facts stated, which was sustained, thus refusing to issue the restraining order asked.

FINANCES AND MARKETS
[Republican A. P. Leased Wire]
NEW YORK, March 29.—Specialties comprising the food and fertilizer division were the strongest and most active features of today's stock market at gains of 1 to 2 points. Oils, motors and motor specialties opened the lively trading and gains of 1 to 4 points, but these were largely if not wholly effected when steel, shipping and tobacco began to react.

Reactions in United States steel, Chile copper and some of the investment rails which featured yesterday's strong market held within large fractions of a point, an irregular tone ruling at the end. Sales amounted to $50,000 shares.

Actual loans and discounts of clearing house banks contracted by about $45,500,000 or more than $100,000,000 in the past fortnight; and a further decrease of almost $14,500,000 in excess reserves drew the total to below $30,000,000.

Liberty bonds were firm, international bonds eased slightly and the general domestic list held steady. Total sales par value aggregated $8,575,000. Old United States bonds were unchanged on call during the week.

THE WEEK IN FINANCE
NEW YORK, March 29.—Regarding conflicting reports from abroad, much of this week's trading in stocks, at higher prices, was traceable to the conviction that events at the peace conference are progressing favorably.

Quite as important in shaping the character of the trading were the unmistakable signs of future impetus in several important branches of industry, as seen in the wider inquiry for finished and semi-finished steel, and a concurrent demand for copper.

The United States steel annual report is to issue early in the coming week, and is expected to throw a strong light on its vast financial resources. To bankers the most significant feature of the February foreign trade report embraced the agricultural products, which were greater by $78,000,000 than in the same month of 1918. The free market for foreign exchange caused further depreciation in the value of pounds sterling, francs and lire, remittances to London approximating the lowest quotation of the war period. Exchange on neutral countries was also affected by these abnormal conditions from which no immediate relief is expected.

COTTON
NEW YORK, March 29.—Cotton closed steady net three points higher to 30 cents lower on new style and 15 points higher to 15 points lower on old style months.

CLEARING HOUSE RESERVES
NEW YORK, March 29.—The actual condition of clearing house banks and trust companies for the week show that they hold $29,397,560 reserves in excess of legal requirements. This is a decrease of $14,358,930 for last week.

METALS
NEW YORK, March 29.—The market for copper was comparatively quiet during the week just ended, but prices were firmly maintained. Today's quotations for electrolytic ranged from 15 to 15½ New York and from 15½ to 15½ delivered with some of the large interests quoting 15½ to 15½ delivered.

MERCANTILE PAPER
NEW YORK, March 29.—Mercantile paper 5½¢ to 5½¢; sterling 60 day bills $4.54; commercial 60 day bills on banks $4.52; commercial 60 day bills $4.53; demand $4.57; cables $4.55; Mexican dollars unchanged.
